Dear Tax Collector:

On _____ occasions the IRS collection department levied my paycheck for an alleged tax debt for the tax year _____ by way of a wage levy.

For the tax year in question, I had a collection due process hearing (CDPH) pending. Under IRC 6330, all tax collections activity are suspended while the CDPH is pending.

The IRS collection department levied my paycheck this last pay period. I called the IRS collection office on Friday of last week on Feb 16 on an 800 number. I informed the collection staff, a _____, that the CDPH was pending and therefore the levy was illegal. The Revenue Officer promised to stop the levy and promised me a refund of monies wrongfully taken.

By stopping the levy earlier this year, the IRS has admitted that the levy on my paycheck was in violation of federal law. Therefore I am entitled to an apology from your office for your wrongdoing. The illegal taking of my paycheck has happened _____ times and I want some assurance that it will not happen again.

The levy on almost all of my paycheck caused me to lose my job. I was out of work _____ months and incurred loss of wages in the amount of $_____. Being forced out of my job and having to find a new job was an anxious period for me and I suffered mental pain and anguish.

The dates of the levy and the amount taken on the levy include:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Yours,

David Patriot
